

Press Contact: Pete Caslavka
Phone Number: (415) 713-8031
E-mail: Czech.pete@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—

MONEY & RUN RETURNS TO LOS ANGELES
WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY WAYNE RAWLEY

Los Angeles, CA—What Enterprises in co-production with the Lyric-Hyperion Theatre is proud to present the Southern California return of Money & Run: An Action Adventure Serial for the Stage, written and directed by Wayne Rawley. The production begins May 23, Fridays and Saturdays at 10:30pm in an open-ended run at the Lyric-Hyperion Theatre in the Silver Lake District of Los Angeles.

The Money & Run episodes have received nothing but critical praise all along the west coast, and as one Seattle critic exclaimed, “While you may think you have more entertaining things to do at 11 P.M. on a Friday night, trust me. You don’t.” The Pilot Episode: Money, Take Run will be playing through June, with Episode 2: Of Nuns and Ninjas, and Episode 3: Save the Last Dance for Run premiering in July.

Conceived by comedy writer Wayne Rawley, Money & Run first emerged from Seattle’s Theater Schmeater as a bona-fide late-night phenomenon. The story follows the adventures of Money, a criminal with a heart of gold (Johanna Watts) and her rugged outlaw boyfriend Run (reprised by the original performer, Joshua Sliwa). The pilot episode played to sold out houses in Seattle and Impact Theatre in Berkeley, CA. Audiences in both cities clamored for more, and they got it with Episodes 2, 3, 4 and A Very Special Money & Run Winter Season Holiday Special. In 2007, Rawley brought the series to Los Angeles and packed the Santa Monica Playhouse for the Episode 1 L.A. debut, appearing in the L.A. Times’ “The Best of The New in L.A.” special summer pullout section.

Episode 1: Money, Take Run begins as Cudrup County's Loveable Larcenists meet while both trying to rob the same liquor store. As the smoke clears, their love blossoms and their troubles begin. Big Momma Bob, (Alyssa Bostwick), the greedy local liquor store magnate, won’t stop until our Outrageous Outlaws are shot or blown up, or as she calls it, “downsized.” When the mysterious lawman Jimmy Jack (Tobias Jelinek, currently playing “Bodhi” in the LA hit “Point Break Live”) shows up, only M&R's new found love for each other and their desire to find an empty room to express that love carnally can keep them together!

Money & Run Episode 1: Money, Take Run also features Wayne Rawley as the Narrator, Craig Welzbacher as Ronny, Pete Caslavka as OT, and Jonathan Rau as Mitch.

For more information, visit www.moneyandrun.net